

REVIEW OF 2020

Preparing our Residents

The Neighborhood Inclusion Committee kick started events at Chadsey Condon in February of 2020 with a Workforce Readiness Workshop. We welcomed representatives from the US census, Jeff Jones from Detroit at Work, and William Lockett from Ford Motor Company to talk about employment opportunities. The committee works to support local residents to make sure their needs are included in development plans for the Chadsey Condon neighborhood.

Shutdown and Holding Up

Barely into 2020, the COVID-19 pandemic surfaced and disrupted so much in our lives and communities. Like many agencies and businesses, Chadsey Condon was forced to close its doors and wait out the unknown. Learning of the impact COVID-19 had on our residents and neighborhoods, our organization made the necessary adjustments to ensure that we continued to serve the community. We kept our residents informed along the way with important updates, health and safety tips, and responded to resident needs. We have supplies to keep you safe. If you are need of items please contact our office.

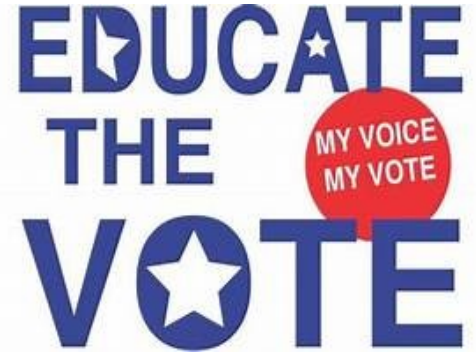

Our partnership with Metropolitan Detroit Diaper Bank steady through the year. Although our office was closed, we were able to redirect residents to the new online procedures. If you are in need, please visit detroitdiaperbank.com/diapers.

Why have an Advance Care Plan?

Have You Had the Conversation?

No matter your age or health all adults need to be prepared in the event of a sudden medical event or situation. In November, we partnered with Henry Ford Health Systems to train members of our board to be a certified Respecting Choices Advance Care Planner Facilitator. Here to help you begin the conversations with your loved ones and identify what living well means to you, we invite you to join the next community information sessions in the Spring of 2021.

Voter Education

In October of 2020, Chadsey Condon presented two candidate forums just before the elections. We wanted our residents to be informed about the new voting procedures and who was on the ballot this year. We focused on candidates running for the 36th District Court Judges seats. The forums were very informative and residents were better equipped to make informed decisions when filling out their ballots. Residents were very responsive to the forums and Chadsey Condon will continue to provide engagement opportunities around voting in the future.

Working Together with You

At Chadsey Condon, we believe healthy communities are successful when neighbors are connected to one another and work together. In October of 2020, we welcomed Janlynn Miller as the Community Engagement Specialist to work with residents to identify and address the needs in our community. Resident engagement and leadership is necessary to create and sustain the change we seek in our neighborhoods. To get involved, call or email us today!.
